NORWICH DELEGATION WILL GO TO MONTVILLE

For Open Meeting of Cocheagan Camp, No. 2366, Modern Woodmen.

Cocheagan camp, No. 2366, Modern Woodmen, has made final arrangements for the open meeting to be held at Montville Friday evening. Several speakers from the head camp will be present and a large delegation from the New London and Norwich camps is also expected. Walden's band has been engaged for the evening and it is expected that a large number of people will attend. The latter part of October the members of Cocheagan camp will go to Hartford to assist in a celebration there.

Three Ears to the Stalk.

N. W. Wheeler of the Peter Keyser farm in Lebanon brought to the Bulletin office on Saturday two stalks of evergreen sweet corn with three ears on each stalk. Mr. Wheeler is proud of the showing that his corn makes and is waiting to see who can produce corn of this variety with more than three ears to the stalk.

THE CHARM OF MOTHERHOOD

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once children there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

HAD LONG LIFE AT MINISTRY

Rev. James O. Dodge Dies at Norwich Town—Has Served

Methodist Churches in New England Southern Conference

for 40 Years—Last Pastorate at Norwich Town—

Powerful as Preacher—Led Many to Conversion.

Rev. James Orson Dodge, well known for the last 40 years among the Methodist churches of this part of Connecticut and for the past 20 years a resident of Norwich Town, died Sunday morning at his home, No. 183 West Town street.

He was born in Eastford, Conn., in August, 1828. His early life until he was 23, was spent in Eastford where in 1856 he was married to Miss Annie Maria Jackson of Sturbridge, Mass. He began to preach in 1870, supplying at Moose Meadow and Willington. Very soon after he joined the New England Southern Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, and he has filled the following appointments: Willington, Gurleyville, Hockanum, Attawaguan, Voluntown and Griswold, Tolland, South Coventry and Eastford, Vt. Health failing, he became a supernumerary and supplied for a time at several towns in Massachusetts, Coleraine, Wales, West Pelham and North Amherst. His health improving he again became effective and for three years filled the pastorate at the churches in Colchester, Hebron and Norwich Town. But under the strain of an aggravated asthma, he was compelled to relinquish the active pastorate, although he preached frequently and on special occasions.

He was a man of striking and dignified personality, holding great power over men, by his commanding presence and preaching as well as in private life. Evangelistic in his methods, great revivals of religion and conversions marked his ministry. He was a man of unblemished character, who lost the entire community will feel for he was a friend and adviser to very many.

Three months ago a disease of a very painful nature began its course, and his release is a happy one. He leaves a widow, three sons, Walter P. Dodge, Alfred O. and Anderson. E. Dodge, all business men of Springfield, Mass., and one daughter, Miss Edith M. Dodge, of Norwich Town.

BISHOP CONATY WAS

EARNED TEMPERANCE WORKER

Dies at Coronado—Addressed Norwich

Audiences Over 20 Years Ago.

Members of St. Mary's T. A. B. society, who recalled with pleasure one of two addresses that Bishop Thomas J. Conaty made before the society in T. A. B. hall and Breed hall about 35 years ago learned with much regret of his death, which occurred on Saturday morning at Coronado, Cal., where he had been for a week past in steadily declining health.

For many years he had been bishop of the Catholic diocese of Los Angeles and Monterey. He was born in Ireland and was in his seventy-ninth year. With his parents he came to this country at an early age and was educated in Montreal college, from which he was graduated in 1867. After this Bishop Conaty was educated from Holy Cross college in 1869 and Montreal Theological school in 1872. In 1880 Georgetown university granted him the degree of D. D., and in 1891 Laval university of Quebec, Canada, conferred on him the degrees of J. C. D. and D. D.

Bishop Conaty was ordained a priest of the Catholic church in 1871 and became rector of the Church of the Sacred Heart in Worcester, Mass. In 1880 and remained there until 1897. On Oct. 23, 1896, he was elected by the American Catholic bishops and the trustees of the university to succeed Bishop Keane as rector of the Catholic university in Washington. Pope Leo XIII conferred the appointment in November of the same year. At that time the pope also conferred on him the title of domestic prelate and nominated him titular bishop of Samos. Cardinal Gibbons consecrated him in Baltimore in 1903.

Bishop Conaty was long identified with educational and social movements in Los Angeles, having been appointed to the See of Monterey and Los Angeles in March, 1903. He edited and edited for four years the Catholic School and Home magazine; during 1897-8, he was president of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America, and in 1893 organized the Catholic summer school at Plattsburgh, N. Y., of which he was president until 1897.

Bishop Conaty was the author of a number of religious works, among which were Bible Studies.

PLAINFIELD PASTOR AT

OPEN AIR MEETING

Rev. W. H. Lakin Was Speaker at

Y. M. C. A. Service.

Rev. W. H. Lakin of Plainfield brought a message of forgiveness to the people of Norwich at the open air meeting conducted by the Y. M. C. A. on the lawn at Buckingham Memorial Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

General Secretary Edwin Hill led the service which opened with the singing of familiar hymns followed by prayer.

Rev. Mr. Lakin presented his message very forcibly and illustrated his points with several appropriate stories.

Summed up in brief Rev. Mr. Lakin said that all that was necessary to enter the kingdom of God was to ask His forgiveness for sins committed.

"You don't have to tug at God like an old bell rope," said Rev. Mr. Lakin, "for God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that all who believed in Him should be saved."

On next Sunday the series of open air meetings will be concluded for the season and it is hoped that the attendance will be as large as it has been in the past.

Otis Library Books.

On the list of books last week were:

"Pentecost of Calvary," "I Accuse," published in Switzerland and supposed to be written by a German of high rank. "Wild Bird Guests," How to entertain them. The book also deals with the organization and management of bird clubs. The "Year Book" of the United Amateur Press Association of America for 1914. The eighteenth convention met in this city last year.

TEACHERS WILL HEAR

SOME NOTED SPEAKERS

Rabbi Wise and Professor Dewey at Convention in New London.

Several hundred public school teachers will visit New London Oct. 32, on the occasion of the first state convention held at New London under the dual city system. Exceptional interest has been aroused in the convention from the fact that two of the best known men in the country are to be among the speakers. They are Rabbi Wise of New York and Prof. John Dewey of Columbia university.

The meetings of the day will be held in Williams Memorial institute, the New London Vocational school and the Nathan Hale grammar school. It is possible, however, that the Lyceum theatre may be secured for the address by Rabbi Wise, in order that teachers may have an opportunity to hear him. Principals of the schools in charge of the arrangements.

Joint Committee Made Plans.

A joint committee from Germania lodge No. 11, S. of H. and Germania lodge No. 12, held a meeting in Germania hall, Shetucket street, on Saturday evening to perfect plans for an entertainment to be held in the near future.

NORWICH TOWN

Rev. William M. Zumbro Describes the

Work of Madura College—Sheltering

Arms Household Entertained by Mrs.

E. J. Graham—Baltic Class Entertained.

At the First Congregational church Sunday morning Rev. William M. Zumbro, president of the Madura College, India, outlined clearly the work of the college and showed the influence it is having in the reconstruction of the religious belief of India. The response of India to the call of war has been splendid, he began. People are loyal to the British crown and large numbers of money and clothing have been made. India as a result of her part in the war will be accorded by the English nation large power and self-government over India is the finest I ever saw. The splendid rule of the present viceroy and the recent visit of royalty have lessened the political unrest.

The South India United church, organized seven years ago, has been increasing in numbers. This union includes two missions of the American Board, the Madura and Ceylon missions of Great Britain, a mission of the Presbyterian Dutch Reformed, and a Scotch mission. The Wesleyan is to unite, according to present plan, into the German mission. The war makes changed conditions. Within a few years denominational differences will doubtless have disappeared and the South India church will advance in an organized body.

Eight years ago the students in Madura college numbered 80; now there are 400. The high school from 400 has increased to 600 students. Students entering the college come from 35 different high schools all over southern India. Syrian Christian boys come from the west coast of India. This is an interesting mission founded five or six hundred years ago. They have kept their faith in the midst of the Hindus. Students come from the Brahmin caste, the shepherd caste, one boy from the potter's caste, others of the 40 different castes are represented; 25 per cent. of the boys are Christians. This college is affiliated with Madras university.

Nearly all the modern courses of study are pursued in Madura college. The teaching staff has been increased; of the 19 on the faculty, 13 are Indian professors. The campus contains 13 acres, on which is located one fine main building, two dormitories and a science building. The college is helping in the remaking of India. A new day is coming; the past is going as in other Oriental countries. The college will help conserve out of the past religion of India the good there is in that past. First, their consciousness of God in everything about them. The self-reliance requires sacrifice. In the self-inflicted sufferings and the long journey under the hot sun of the Indian sun, there is a lesson of sacrifice for us for our religion?

The Christian college is helping to get rid of some of the evils which have come down from the past. The social spirit among the students is accomplishing the doing away of caste feeling. The idea of fate is one of the evil influences, also superstitions.

The mission of the college is to bring in new ideas from the west, the recognition of truth as a reality and the obligation of truth; the idea of God in Christ redeeming the world. India needs this message.

Increasingly the large results of missions in India were summed up. There are constant calls from villagers for teachers which cannot be met because of lack of funds.

Meeting on the Lawn.

Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock the First Congregational church improvement society met on the lawn south of the chapel. The time was passed in social talk and neighborhood greetings, after a brief business meeting in which those present voted acceptance and thanks for the generous offer of a new carpet from one of the church members for the parlor of the chapel. Ice cream and cake were served by the president, Mrs. O. S. Smith, assisted by young ladies present.
